Are you Expecting a Baby? Want to Have your Child Baptized?

Congratulations! We are so happy that you're here, and would like to help your family become part of our parish life. To have your baby baptized here, it's good to plan ahead. For first time parents, you need to attend a Baptism Preparation Session. These are offered monthly on Monday evenings from 6:30-8:00 p.m. at Old Saint Mary parish center. OUR NEXT SESSION IS MONDAY, OCTOBER 24, 2011. Parents often find it easiest to do this before the baby is born, and you're encouraged to participate soon! To begin the process to have your baby baptized call the parish office (414) 271-6577.

FROM YOUR PARISH PRIESTS

Dear friends,

This is the first opportunity I have had to write to you since returning from my retreat on September 21. I want to thank all of you who prayed for me while I was away. It was very evident that many of you were praying for me because, as it turned out, this was one of the best retreats I believe I've ever made. God was very good to me during this time. I joined the monks praying the Divine Office fives times every day, beginning at 4:00 AM and ending the day at 7:45 PM. At each of those times I asked for God's blessings on every one of our parishioners, on our pastoral staffs, our parish councils and the pastoral team, our permanent deacons, the seminarians who help us in our parishes and all the priests who assist us.

I know I speak for Frs. Tim and Mike when I say that we pray for all of you everyday. We pray that God will bless you in whatever way you may need that blessing most. We pray that each day you will grow in your relationship with Christ and that together all of us may live the Gospel as faithfully and as fully as possible. Many of you ask us to remember a loved one, a friend or even yourself in prayer because of a special circumstance in your lives. We assure you that we honor your request.

Perhaps many of you already do this, but I want to make a special request of all of you to begin to remember all of your fellow parishioners in prayer each day. You may not realize it, but among us there are many people who have no one who prays for them. There are parishioners we pray for when they are sick, when they celebrate a sacrament or when they have lost a loved one. These are really important times to pray for one another. But what about praying for one another when there is no special circumstance? What if we simply asked God to bless each and every one of our fellow parishioners, in our own parish and in the others in our cluster, with whatever God sees they need most at this time? Can you imagine the sort of impact this would have, not only for individual parishioners, but for the entire community as well? As someone who has felt the power of other people' s prayers, I know that our prayers for one another can produce much good fruit.

So, would you please join me in offering at least a short prayer each day for all of the people in our parish community? I cannot think of a better way to show our support and love for one another. And, the best thing is, this will only produce good in one another's lives and in the lives of our parish communities.

Indeed, God is good.

Autumn blessings,
Fr. Brian

CATHOLIC EAST ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NEWS

Sunday, Oct. 30, Open House Set for Holy Rosary Campus of Catholic East Elementary

Curious about what the "new" Holy Rosary School looks like? Check it out after Mass on Sunday, Oct. 30. An open house for all parishioners will be held at the newest campus of our parish school, Catholic East Elementary from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. The Holy Rosary Campus is located at 2038 N. Bartlett Ave., just across the parking lot from Three Holy Women's Holy Rosary Church. The historic Holy Rosary school building was used as offices in recent decades and completely renovated as a beautiful, state-of-the-art campus for Catholic East children in Grades K3 to Grade 2.

And there's a meatball bonus - Holy Rosary campus visitors will receive a coupon to get an extra meatball free at the Three Holy Women Fall Spaghetti Dinner to be held that day from Noon to 5:30 pm at St. Rita Scalabrini Hall, corner of Cass and Pleasant streets. The $8 dinner ($4 for children) includes spaghetti, meatballs, salad, bread & butter, spumoni and cannoli.

Catholic East again thanks the parishioners of our five supporting parishes for their support of this project and improvements at our SS. Peter and Paul Campus on Murray Street.

Catholic East, www.mycatholiceast.org, is the K3-8 school of the five parishes of the Riverbank Catholic Communities: Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist, Old St. Mary, Our Lady of Divine Providence, SS. Peter and Paul and Three Holy Women.

Why Was The Roman Missal Revised?

Corinna Laughlin and Kristopher W. Seaman

As part of the renewal of the liturgy of the Second Vatican Council, the bishops of the Church agreed that liturgical texts could be translated and prayed in vernacular languages. The liturgical books themselves were also reformed. The result was the 1969 Missal of Paul VI, which reflected the revised liturgy (sometimes called the novus ordo). This book, published in Latin, was subsequently translated into vernacular languages around the world. In 2000, to commemorate the new millennium, Pope John Paul II published a third edition of The Roman Missal. This edition includes prayers for many saints' days and more options for prayers. As with all liturgical books, this third edition of The Roman Missal was first published in Latin. Since its publication, national Bishops' conferences have been working to translate the Missal into the local languages of the people. A considerable amount of time has been spent preparing the English translation, which will have a significant impact on all who pray the Mass in English. Find out more about the changes that are in store at www.RevisedRomanMissal.org.
