FROM YOUR PARISH PRIESTS

Dear Friends,

As we continue to reflect on the call of increased stewardship in our parishes, it is important to set forth gratitude as a key part of any community. It goes without saying that we are living in hard economic times, and the feeling of worry and anxiety can seep into so many areas of our lives. In a time of "downturn," we become down.

And yet we are still here, and we gather each weekend in our beloved churches, with family members and fellow parishioners, in a great country that protects our right to worship and assemble. We hear the Word of God and we celebrate rituals whose very essence is generous love by our God who promises to remain with us, through thick and thin, a God who loves us even when we fail, and who sustains us even when we become a little forgetful of His constant and faithful presence. We share the Eucharist, a word meaning "thankfulness", our thankfulness for God and His persistent love, thankfulness for God who expresses His love for His creation by feeding us and assuring us that our needs can never be greater than His love.

Autumn is in full swing. As we look upon cool, clear nights, rainy leaf-driven days, crisp sunshine, and yes, even impending snow, may the changes of season remind us that even in change some things remain the same. We will still gather next week, probably see the same people in our lives; the liturgical changes will be happening, but the essence of Mass remains the same. Worries will still be present and the needed fixes in our society will not happen overnight. We will still struggle in new and different ways, but with the same feeling of pain and worry.

But what doesn't change is God. What doesn't change is God's love. What doesn't change is God's generosity!

For that may we be grateful and work together as individuals and as a community, to pray to imitate God in His love and generosity, for our good and the good of the Church!

Sincerely, with love,
Fr. Tim

CATHOLIC EAST ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NEWS

Sunday, Oct. 30, Open House Set for Holy Rosary Campus of Catholic East Elementary

Curious about what the "new" Holy Rosary School looks like? Check it out after Mass on Sunday, Oct. 30.

An open house for all parishioners will be held at the newest campus of our parish school, Catholic East Elementary from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. The Holy Rosary Campus is located at 2038 N. Bartlett Ave., just across the parking lot from Three Holy Women's Holy Rosary Church.

The historic Holy Rosary school building was used as offices in recent decades and completely renovated as a beautiful, state-of-the-art campus for Catholic East children in Grades K3 to Grade 2.

And there's a meatball bonus - Holy Rosary campus visitors will receive a coupon to get an extra meatball free at the Three Holy Women Fall Spaghetti Dinner to be held that day from noon to 5:30 p.m at the St. Rita Scalabrini Hall, corner of Cass and Pleasant streets. The $8 dinner ($4 for children) includes spaghetti, meatballs, salad, bread & butter, spumoni and cannoli.

Catholic East again thanks the parishioners of our five supporting parishes for their support of this project and improvements at our SS. Peter and Paul Campus on Murray Street.

Catholic East, www.mycatholiceast.org, is the K3-8 school of the five parishes of the Riverbank Catholic Communities: Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist, Old St. Mary, Our Lady of Divine Providence, SS. Peter and Paul and Three Holy Women.

Please join us at 7pm at Holy Rosary as we pray for and remember those who have gone before us in faith in the joyous hope of the resurrection. Simple refreshments will follow.

Holy, Holy, Holy

Corinna Laughlin and Kristopher W. Seaman

The words of the Eucharistic Prayer are prayed by the priest, but the faithful participate actively in this part of the Mass both through prayer and through three acclamations: the Holy, Holy, Holy (Sanctus); the Memorial Acclamation; and the Amen. Just before we sing the Holy, Holy, Holy, we are reminded that this is the song of angels and saints. In the Holy, Holy, Holy, earth unites with heaven in song. In the revised translation of The Roman Missal, you will notice just one change to the Holy, Holy, Holy. Instead of "God of power and might" we will sing, "God of hosts." The word "hosts" refers to the heavenly hosts, the whole company of heaven. We are reminded not just of God's mighty power, but of God's kingdom that encompasses both heaven and earth.

Are you Expecting a Baby? Want to Have your Child Baptized?

Congratulations! We are so happy that you're here, and would like to help your family become part of our parish life. To have your baby baptized here, it's good to plan ahead. For first time parents, you need to attend a Baptism Preparation Session. These are offered monthly on Monday evenings from 6:30-8:00 p.m. at Old Saint Mary parish center. OUR NEXT SESSION IS MONDAY, OCTOBER 24, 2011. Parents often find it easiest to do this before the baby is born, and you're encouraged to participate soon! To begin the process to have your baby baptized contact Michele or Daisy at the parish office (414) 271-6577.
