Are you Expecting a Baby? Want to Have your Child Baptized?

Congratulations! We are so happy that you're here, and would like to help your family become part of our parish life. To have your baby baptized here, it's good to plan ahead. For first time parents, you need to attend a Baptism Preparation Session. These are offered monthly on Monday evenings from 6:30-8:00 p.m. at Old Saint Mary parish center. OUR NEXT SESSION IS MONDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 2011. Parents often find it easiest to do this before the baby is born, and you're encouraged to participate soon! To begin the process to have your baby baptized call the parish office (414) 271-6577.

From Your Parish Priests

Dear Friends,

Stay awake, for the Lord is coming.

While the first three Sundays in November are still part of Ordinary Time, there is a definite shift in emphasis. The abundance of fall fruits and vegetables from our gardens and fields are but reminders of the final harvest that takes place when Christ will come in his glory. Last week we began this month with the annual celebration of All Saints and All Souls. In these two celebrations we prayerfully recalled our membership in the communion of saints. While we journey on earth as pilgrims, hoping to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, we ask for the assistance of all the saints who strengthen us by their witness and intercession. We also lovingly remember our departed brothers and sisters who are in the process of being purified to enter the Kingdom. In these next three weeks in our liturgy we will reflect on the "last things," death, judgment and the return of Christ "who will come in glory to judge the living and the dead."

The readings for the Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time help us to reflect on what the Church teaches about the reality of death. Contrary to some interpreters of today's second reading from 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 where they teach that the Lord's coming will be the beginning of the divine rapture where God will rescue us from the perils of the world, St. Paul taught that we are saved by being immersed in the death and resurrection of Christ. Those who have died will also share in the power of new life since Jesus is Lord of both the living and the dead. As the Thessalonians expected that Christ would come soon, St. Paul had to give pastoral advice to his fledgling congregation who were worried about the exact time and place of the Parousia.

Matthew, like Paul, was dealing with the same issue of the delay of the final coming of Christ, only twenty years later. We will reflect on several parables over the next three weeks as Matthew tries to teach his church how to be alert and vigilant for the final coming of Christ. In order to do so, we need to heed the advice from Wisdom 5:12-16 and be patient and still. Rather than demand a quick answer to our own problems, we need to empty ourselves of our own agenda and be willing to receive. While we prepare ourselves for our own death and share in the Passover of the Lord, we need to be alert to the coming of Christ in our own lives every day in the poor, the homeless and those crying out for help.

Joining you in prayer as we await the final coming of the Lord.

"Glory to God in the Highest"

Corinna Laughlin and D. Todd Williamson

The Gloria, an ancient hymn dating to the early Church, is prayed every Sunday except during Advent and Lent, as well as on solemnities and feasts of the Lord. The hymn brings together images and phrases from Scripture and Tradition. It begins with the words of the angels to the shepherds on the night of Christ's birth: "Glory to God in the highest, / and on earth peace to people of good will" (ICEL; see Luke 2:14). Then we sing, "We praise you, / we bless you, / we adore you, / we glorify you, / we give you thanks for your great glory . . ." Our praise to God cannot be contained in one word, but overflows in many words of praise. Then we call on the Lord in a crescendo of titles for God: "Lord God, heavenly King, / O God, almighty Father." The Gloria then moves to a litany in which we implore Christ's mercy on us, and concludes with a great crescendo of praise, acknowledging who Christ is: the holy one, the Lord, the Father's only Son. In the Gloria, we raise, with one voice, the song of the angels.
